CAREER FIELD EDUCATION AND TRAINING PLAN

PART 1

PREFACE

1. This Career Field Education and Training Plan (CFETP) is a comprehensive education and training document that identifies life-cycle education/training requirements, training support resources, and minimum core task requirements for this specialty.

1.1. This CFETP enables individuals in the contracting community to understand the training and education necessary for a clear career path to success.

1.2. The CFETP incorporates Acquisition Professional Development Program (APDP) requirements as they apply to the appropriate contracting career path.

1.3. The CFETP also provides supervisors the guidance needed to train today's work force for tomorrow's jobs. The guidance provided in this plan ensures individuals in the contracting specialty receive effective and efficient training at the appropriate point in their careers.

2. The CFETP consists of two parts.

2.1. Part 1 provides information necessary for overall management of the specialty. Section A explains how everyone will use the plan. Section B identifies career field progression information, duties and responsibilities, training strategies, and career field path. Section C associates each level with specialty qualifications (knowledge, education, training, experience and other). Section D identifies resource constraints.

2.2. Part 2 includes the following: Section A identifies the Specialty Training Standard (STS) and includes duties, tasks, technical references to support training, Air Education and Training Command (AETC) conducted training, wartime course, core tasks, and correspondence course requirements. Sections B and C are not currently used. Section D identifies the source of formal school information, describes and provides references to APDP Contracting career path checklists, describes the Air Force enlisted professional military education policy, and lists the MAJCOM training program points of contact and USAF training directives. Section E explains the MAJCOM process for terms of submission of mandatory training requirement waivers.

3. All contracting personnel should become familiar with the CFETP.

3.1. The on-line CFETP is available at the Official Source Site for Air Force Administrative Publications and Forms.

3.2. Supervisors will maintain a copy of this CFETP for each enlisted member (except fully qualified Senior NCOs) in the member's AF Form 623, On-the-Job-Training record.

ABBREVIATIONS AND TERMS EXPLAINED

Acquisition Professional Development Program (APDP). The program that implements the DOD Career Development Program (defined below).

Advanced Training (AT). Formal course that provides individuals qualified in one or more positions of their Air Force Specialty (AFS) with additional skills and knowledge to enhance their expertise in the career field. Training is for selected career Airmen at the advanced level of the AFS.

Air Force Job Qualification Standard (AFJQS). A comprehensive task list that describes a particular job type or duty position. Supervisors use them to document task qualifications. The tasks on the AFJQS are common to all persons serving in the described duty position.

Air Force Specialty (AFS). Air Force job positions requiring specific skills and qualifications.

Air Force Specialty Code (AFSC). Basic grouping of Air Force positions requiring similar skills and qualifications. Air Force specialty descriptions are published in AFMAN 36-2108.

American Council on Education (ACE). The American Council on Education (ACE) has recommended undergraduate and graduate credit granted by civilian educational institutions for certain courses in this CFETP.

Career Field Education and Training Plan (CFETP). A CFETP is a comprehensive, multipurpose document encapsulating the entire spectrum of training for a career field. It outlines a logical growth plan that includes training resources. The CFETP is designed to make career field training identifiable, eliminate duplication, and ensure the training is budget defensible.

Certification. A formal indication of a person's ability to perform a task to required standards.

Certification Official. For the 6C0X1 career field, the certification official is synonymous with the trainer. Third party certification requirements have been removed from the STS.

Community College of the Air Force (CCAF). Activated in April 1972, CCAF provides enlisted members the opportunity to earn associate degrees in applied sciences directly related to their Air Force Specialties. The Air Force, through CCAF, is the only military service authorized by Congress to confer an associate degree on its enlisted members. CCAF was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Commission on Occupational Education Institutions in 1980. CCAF staff continuously reviews and evaluates the enlisted education and training of schools affiliated with CCAF to determine college level applicability toward CCAF degree requirements. Upon completion of Basic Training, all enlisted members are automatically enrolled in CCAF.

Continuous Learning. Department of Defense policy that applies to all civilian and military DOD Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics Workforce (DOD ATLWF). Each member should strive to receive 40 Continuous Learning Points (CLPs) each year in order to accumulate the required 80 CLPs every 2 years. Points can be received for a variety of training activities. Refer to http://www.safaq.hq.af.mil/acq_workf/career_training/cl.html for program application guidance.

Continuation Training (CT). Additional training provided to increase skills and knowledge beyond the minimum required.

Core Task. Tasks identified as minimum qualification requirements within an AFSC, regardless of duty position. Core tasks may be specified for a particular skill level or in general across the AFSC. Guidance for core tasks can be found in the applicable CFETP narrative. Core tasks identified in the Specialty Training Standard (STS) do not require third-party (Certifying Official) certification.

Course Objectives List (COL). A publication, derived from initial skills course training standard, identifying the tasks and knowledge requirements, and respective standards provided to achieve a 3-skill level in this career field. Supervisors use the COL to conduct graduate evaluations in accordance with AFI 36-2201, Volume I – Training Development, Delivery, and Evaluation and Volume III - On the Job Training Administration.

DOD Career Development Program. DOD implementation of the Career Development Program for Acquisition Personnel resulting from the Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA), Public Law 101-510. See also: Acquisition Professional Development Program (APDP), defined above.

Duty Position Tasks. Those tasks that are required of contracting Airmen/NCOs during training at a given skill level. The tasks are related to the specific area within the contracting specialty to which the Airman/NCO is assigned.

Initial Skills Training. A formal resident course which results in award of an entry level career specialty.

Master Task Listing (MTL). A listing of tasks required for a duty position (this includes mandatory core tasks and any other duty tasks determined by the supervisor).

Master Training Plan (MTP). As a minimum the plan must include, a MTL, current CFETP or AFJQS, and a locally developed AF Form 797 (if required). This plan will include milestones for tasks and CDC completion (identify the projected timeframes the trainee will complete their core tasks and each set of CDCs as required). A MTP is required for each work center and tailored for each individual in upgrade or qualification training.

Mission Ready Airman (MRA). A graduate of the Contracting Apprentice Course which included hands-on training of selected tasks to the competency level specified in the STS. Competency is defined by the proficiency code.

Occupational Survey Report (OSR). A detailed report showing the results of an occupational survey of tasks performed within a particular AFS.

On-The-Job Training (OJT). A delivery method used to certify personnel in both upgrade (skill level award) and job qualification (duty position certification) training. OJT is hands-on, over-the-shoulder training conducted at the duty location.

OJT Trainer. A qualified person, recommended by the supervisor, qualified on trainer tasks, who teaches Airmen to perform specific tasks through OJT methods and records task qualifications

Qualification Training (QT). Actual hands-on task performance training designed to qualify an individual in a specific duty position. This portion of the dual channel on-the-job training program occurs both during and after the upgrade training process. It is designed to provide the performance skills required to do the job.

Qualification Training Package (QTP). An instructional package designed for use at the unit to qualify, or aid qualification, in a duty position or program, or on a piece of equipment. It may be printed, computer-based, or in another audiovisual medium.

Specialty Training. A mix of formal (technical school) and informal (on-the-job) training to qualify an Airman/NCO for upgrade to a higher skill level within an AFS.

Specialty Training Standard (STS). An Air Force publication that describes an Air Force specialty in terms of tasks and knowledge an Airman in that specialty may be expected to perform or know how to perform on the job. It identifies the training provided to achieve a 3-, 5-, and 7-skill level within an enlisted AFS. It further serves as a contract between AETC and the functional user to show which overall training requirements for an AFSC are taught in formal schools and correspondence courses.

Training Capacity. The maximum capability of a training setting to provide training on specified requirements, based on the availability of resources.

Training Setting. The type of forum in which training is provided (formal resident school, on-the-job, field training, mobile training team, self-study, etc.).

Upgrade Training (UGT). Mandatory training that leads to attainment of a higher level of proficiency.

Utilization and Training Workshop (U&TW). A forum of the Air Force Career Field Manager (AFCFM), MAJCOM functional managers (FMs), Subject Matter Experts (SMEs), and AETC training personnel that determine career progression and training requirements.

SECTION A - GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Purpose. This CFETP provides information necessary for AFCFMs, MAJCOM FMs, commanders, training managers, supervisors, and trainers to plan, develop, manage, and conduct an effective career field training program.

1.1. Types of Training. This plan outlines training that individuals in this AFS should receive to develop and progress throughout their careers. This plan identifies initial skills, upgrade, qualification, advanced, and proficiency training.

1.1.1. Initial Skills Training. Initial skills training is the AFS specific training an individual receives upon entry into the Air Force or upon retraining into this specialty for award of the 3-skill level. Normally, this training is conducted by AETC at one of the technical training centers.

1.1.2. Upgrade Training. Upgrade training identifies the mandatory courses, task qualification requirements, core tasks, and correspondence course completion requirements for award of the 3-, 5-, 7-, and 9-skill levels.

1.1.3. Qualification Training. Qualification training is actual hands-on task performance training designed to qualify an Airman in a specific duty position. This training program occurs both during and after the upgrade training process. It is designed to provide the performance skills/knowledge required to do the job.

1.1.4. Advanced Training. Advanced training is formal specialty training used for selected Airmen. Proficiency training is additional training, either in-residence or exportable advanced training courses, or on-the-job training, provided to personnel to increase their skills and knowledge beyond the minimum required for upgrade.

1.2. Multi-Purpose. The CFETP is a management tool that provides the training requirements, courses, and resource constraints pertaining to the 6C0X1 career field.

1.2.1. Management Tool. The plan serves as a management tool to plan, manage, conduct, and evaluate a career field-training program. It helps supervisors identify training at the appropriate point in an individual's career.

1.2.2. Training Requirements. The plan identifies task and knowledge training requirements for each skill level in the contracting specialty and recommends training/education throughout each phase of an individual's career.

1.2.3. Training Courses. The CFETP lists training courses available in the contracting specialty, identifies sources of training, and the training delivery method.

1.2.4. Resource Constraints. The plan identifies major resource constraints, which impact full implementation of the desired career field training process.

2. Uses. FMs and supervisors at all levels will use the CFETP to ensure comprehensive and cohesive training programs are available for each individual within the AFSC.

2.1. AETC Training Personnel. AETC training personnel will develop or revise formal resident, non-resident, field and exportable training based on requirements established by users and documented in Part 2 of the CFETP. They will work with the AFCFM to develop acquisition strategies for obtaining resources needed to provide identified training.

2.2. MAJCOM FMs. FMs will ensure their training programs complement the CFETP mandatory initial, upgrade, and proficiency requirements. Identified requirements can be satisfied through OJT, resident, contract, or exportable training or courses. For inclusion into the plan, MAJCOM-developed training to support this AFSC must be identified.

2.3. Mandatory Training Requirements. Each individual will complete the mandatory training requirements specified in this plan. Use the list of courses in Part 2 as a reference to support training.

3. Coordination and Approval. The AFCFM at SAF/AQC approves and maintains the CFETP. SAF/AQCX is the office of coordinating responsibility for the establishment of training policy to support the entire contracting career field. MAJCOM FMs and AETC training personnel review the CFETP annually to ensure currency, accuracy, and relevancy. Any recommended changes should be forwarded to the AFCFM. MAJCOMs must make sure training isn't developed that duplicates existing courses.

3.1. Levels of Responsibility. The following training responsibilities are assigned to each Air Force organizational level.

3.1.1. SAF/AQC. SAF/AQC monitors the progress of contracting training course development (entry, transition, and supplemental) and eliminates roadblocks preventing timely course development.

3.1.2. AFCFM. The AFCFM submits requests for field assistance on development efforts delayed due to lack of technical expertise at the contracting schoolhouse, conducts formal workshops to establish contracting training policy and direction of future contracting training, and, with SAF/AQCX, monitors the overall effectiveness of the contracting training program.

3.1.3. AETC Training Personnel. AETC training personnel will develop/revise formal resident and exportable training based on requirements established by the contracting community and documented in Part 2 of the CFETP. They also work with SAF/AQCX to develop procurement and acquisition strategies for obtaining resources needed to provide the identified training.

3.1.4. MAJCOM Contracting Training Managers. MAJCOM contracting training managers ensure MAJCOM training programs complement the CFETP mandatory initial skills and upgrade training requirements. Identified requirements can be satisfied through OJT, resident training, contract training, or exportable courseware/courses. MAJCOM developed training to support this AFS must be identified for inclusion in this plan and must not duplicate existing training without the consent of the AFCFM.

3.1.5. Unit Commanders. Unit commanders monitor the effectiveness of contracting training. Unit commanders notify MAJCOMs of formal training shortfalls to ensure timely correction and redirection of formal training emphasis; promote an atmosphere for the cross utilization of contracting personnel; develop a solid job rotation program to ensure the best possible training environment for contracting technicians; establish a local quality training program to ensure trainers meet the requirements to conduct proper training of all contracting trainees; and provide assistance to outside agencies with contracting personnel ensuring the same level of training afforded all other contracting trainees.

3.1.6. Individuals. Each individual will complete the mandatory training requirements specified in this plan.

5. Skill and Career Progression. Adequate training and timely progression from the helper level to the superintendent skill level play an important role in the Air Force's ability to accomplish its mission. Everyone involved in training must plan, manage, and conduct an effective training program. The guidance provided in this CFETP will ensure individuals receive viable training at the appropriate points in their careers.

5.1. Unique Aspects of Contracting Career Field. The contracting career field is dynamic and demanding. It requires a high level of training, education, and experience. Besides Air Force technical and OJT requirements, federal law mandates professional certification (detailed in Section B, Paragraph 8, Acquisition Professional Development Program (APDP)/DOD Career Development Program, of this plan). The following narrative is supported by AFSC 6C0X1 career field documents including the Contracting Career Path Pyramid (Figure 1) and related figures. These documents are referenced below and listed, in their entirety, in Section B, Paragraph 10, of this CFETP.

5.1.1. Job Rotation. Exposure to different positions and aspects of contracting is essential at all skill levels. Contract specialists need to gain experience in all aspects of operational contracting. To obtain requisite experience in a variety of contracting actions, or to allow for the rotation of those who need specific experiences, all specialists must rotate regularly to different positions within a contracting office.

5.1.2. Training and Education. Requirements for progression in Air Force skill levels, APDP Contracting Levels, and OJT core task training often overlap. Contracting specialists need to attend AETC technical training courses, DOD courses in support of APDP certifications in Contracting, and accredited college courses.

5.1.3. Timelines for Training. Timelines provide a composite of technical, professional, and military training goals. They combine technical training, OJT, APDP certification, PME, and other education and training goals. Timelines provide guidance in skill and career progression for Non-Prior Service and Prior Service (Retrainees). Unless stated as a maximum time, all timelines are approximate. Supervisors will make adjustments to accommodate the mission.

5.1.3.2. Prior Service (Retrainees). Refer to Figure 3.

5.1.4. PME. Contracting Airmen attend PME commensurate with grade.

5.2. Input or Helper (Entry Level). Graduate of Basic Military Training School and attending, or waiting to attend, the Contracting Apprentice Course.

5.3. Apprentice (3-skill level). The initial skills course must be successfully completed for the award of AFSC 6C031.

5.3.1. Initial Skills Training. Initial skills training consists of the tasks and knowledge training provided in the apprentice course located at Lackland AFB, TX. The decision to train specific tasks and knowledge items in the initial skills course is based on a review of occupational survey report (OSR) data, graduate assessment surveys (GAS), and 6C0X1 subject matter expert (SME) input. Task and knowledge training requirements are identified in the specialty training standard at Part 2 Sections A and B. The initial skills course uses a Mission Ready Airman (MRA) approach that trains selected tasks to a partially proficient level and provides portions of training in a simulated contracting office using scenarios based on real-world contracting actions and employing automated contracting systems.

5.3.2. Timeline for Training. To assess the training progress of a newly assigned Contracting Apprentice, refer to the applicable timeline.

5.3.2.1. Non-Prior Service. See Figure 2.

5.3.2.2. Prior Service (Retrainee). See Figure 3.

5.3.3. Job Rotation. To ensure exposure to all core tasks required in upgrade training the the journeyman level, apprentices must rotate through different positions in the contracting office to maximize their training experiences.

5.4. Journeyman (5-skill level). For the award of AFSC 6C051, upgrade training consists of; (1) completion of 5-skill level contracting Career Development Courses (CDC) within twelve months, (2) minimum time in up-grade training of 15 months for non-prior service (or nine months for retrainees who possessed a 5-level in their prior AFSC), (3) completion of all core tasks and duty position tasks identified by supervisor, (4) meet mandatory requirements listed in AFMAN 36-2108 and this CFETP, (5) be recommended by supervisor, and (6) be approved by the commander.

5.4.1. Career Development Course. Contracting Career Development Courses consist of two (2) sets of CDCs. Sets A and B consist of three volumes each. Knowledge training requirements are identified in the specialty training standard at Part 2, Sections A and B, of this CFETP.

5.4.2. Timelines for Training. To assess the training progress of a contracting Journeyman, refer to the applicable timeline.

5.4.2.1. Non-Prior Service. See Figure 2.

5.4.2.2. Prior Service (Retrainee). See Figure 3.

5.4.3. Job Rotation. To ensure exposure and varying experiences, rotation of contracting journeymen to different positions within the contracting office is required. Assign journeymen as buyers or contract administrators. Supervisors may delegate limited contracting officer responsibilities to 5-levels. Journeymen may be expected to serve as trainers for tasks they are qualified on.

5.4.4. Contingency Deployment. While deployed in support of contingency operations for periods greater than 30 days, documentation of the OJT records is required for breaks in training.

5.4.5. Airman Leadership School (ALS). Journeymen must attend ALS. Attendance is governed by several factors. Staff Sergeant-selects must complete ALS before assuming their new rank. Senior Airmen will attend Airman Leadership School (ALS) once they have obtained 48 months total active federal military service (TAFMS).

5.4.6. Weighted Airman Promotion System (WAPS). Individuals will use CDCs to prepare for promotion testing.

5.4.7. Continuing Education. Journeyman MUST complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in business-related course work from accredited college sources to obtain their APDP Level I certification in Contracting. Journeymen should consider continuing their education in pursuit of a CCAF degree in Contracts Management.

5.5. Craftsman (7- skill level). Begin upgrade training to the 7-skill level upon selection to SSgt. For award of AFSC 6C071, upgrade training consists of; (1) achievement of APDP Level I certification in Contracting, (2) completion of Contingency Contracting Course (CON 234), (3) minimum twelve months up-grade training (six months for retrainees who held a 7-level in previous AFSC) and OJT completion of all core and duty position tasks, (4) ability to perform Contingency Contracting Officer (CCO) duties, (5) meet mandatory requirements listed in AFMAN 36-2108 and this CFETP, (6) be recommended by supervisor, and (7) approved by their commander.

5.5.1. Positions. A 7-level can expect to buy and administer more complicated contracts and, in some cases fill various supervisory and management positions such as flight chief, assistant flight chief, team lead, superintendent, first sergeant, and/or contracting officer. They can also expect to serve as trainers.

5.5.2. Timeline for Training. To assess the training progress of a contracting craftsman, refer to the applicable timeline. The timeline reflects ideal conditions for training. The rank of the retrainee may impact the time line, requiring early attendance in courses required to obtain APDP Level I certification in Contracting. Although only Level I certification is required for upgrade, the APDP program mandates certification to the level identified by the position you fill on the Unit Manning Document (UMD). Therefore, pursuit of APDP Level II certification is still necessary.

5.5.3. Job Rotation. Personnel in upgrade to the Craftsman level, still require broadening exposures throughout the contracting career field. Even fully trained and qualified craftsmen must rotate to allow for sufficient rotation of less trained individuals and to keep their skills refreshed. Craftsmen may be expected to serve as trainers for tasks they are qualified on.

5.5.4. Non-Prior Service. See Figure 2.

5.5.5. Prior Service (Retrainee). See Figure 3.

5.5.6. Contingency Deployment. While deployed in support of contingency operations, completion of formal OJT programs will not be required

5.5.7. Noncommissioned Officer Academy (NCOA). Upon promotion to TSgt, individuals will be scheduled to attend the NCOA.

5.5.8. Weighted Airman Promotion System (WAPS). Individuals will use CDCs to prepare for promotion testing.

5.5.9. Continuing Education. Continued academic education through the CCAF or civilian education institutions is highly desirable.

5.6. Superintendent (9-skill level). Begin upgrade training to the 9-skill level upon selection to SMSgt. For award of AFSC 6C091, upgrade training consists of meeting the mandatory requirements listed in AFMAN 36-2108 and the supervisor's recommendation.

5.6.1. Positions. 9-level superintendents can be flight chiefs, superintendents, or on MAJCOM or NAF staffs.

5.6.2. Senior Noncommissioned Officer Academy (SNCOA). SMSgt-selects should attend the in-residence Senior Noncommissioned Officer Academy (SNCOA). It is highly desirable that all personnel complete the SNCOA correspondence course at the earliest time eligible to do so. Completion of the SNCOA correspondence course is required for personnel in the grade of MSgt who want to attend Level III courses.

5.6.3. Continuing Education. Additional higher education is highly desirable. SMSgts (and MSgts serving as squadron superintendents) should complete courses leading to APDP Level III certification in Contracting.

5.7. Chief Enlisted Manager (CEM/6C000). A CEM is a CMSgt. CEM duties and responsibilities vary depending on the assignment. Although their training and education requirements are the same as those of Superintendents, job-specific requirements vary according to assignment. The CEM code is earned upon promotion to CMSgt.

6. Training Decisions. This CFETP uses a building block approach (simple to complex) to encompass the entire spectrum of training requirements for the contracting career field. The spectrum includes a strategy for when, where, and how to meet these training requirements. The strategy must ensure development of affordable training, elimination of duplication, and prevention of a fragmented approach to training. The following training decisions were based on a career field Utilization and Training Workshop (U&TW) held 23 – 26 March 2004 at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

6.1. Initial Skills. Functional Managers decided Airmen entering the contracting career field will be trained as Mission Ready Airmen (MRA) in selected tasks. Accordingly, they adjusted the proficiency codes on certain tasks from "3b or 3c" to "2b" or "2c" or lesser PCK codes. (The STS in Part 2, Sections A and B of this CFETP lists these items.) To achieve the requisite level of proficiency, FMs determined selected portions of training will be provided in a simulated contracting office using scenarios based on real-world contracting actions and employing the contracting automated system. FMs concurred emphasis should continue to be placed on contracting using SAP and acquisition of commercial items.

6.2. 5-Level Upgrade Requirements. No changes.

6.2.1. Time Allowed for Completion of CDC Courses. Functional Managers determined that trainees should only be given one month per volume; however, a year for completion is reasonable when considering ordering and delivery delays.

6.3. 7-Level Upgrade Training Requirements. FMs determined that APDP Level I certification in Contracting is adequate for upgrade to 7-skill level; however, the position dictates the level of certification and personnel need to continue to pursue higher certifications IAW their assigned position.

6.3.1. CON 234. Personnel in 5-skill level upgrade training are highly encouraged to complete CON 234 to prepare for deployments. CON 234 completion is a prerequisite for upgrade to the 7-skill level.

6.4. Automatic Scheduling of CON 104. For the remainder of Fiscal Year 2004, CON 104 will continue to exist as a level I required course. Changes will be made once the Defense Acquisition University makes final changes to certification track training courses.

7. Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) Academic Programs.

7.1. Enrollment. Enrollment in CCAF occurs upon completion of basic military training. CCAF provides the opportunity for all enlisted members to obtain an Associate in Applied Science degree. The degree must be completed before the student separates from the Air Force, retires, or commissions as an officer. For program details regarding the Associate of Applied Science degree, refer to the CCAF web site at <http://www.au.af.mil/au/ccaf>.

7.2. Degree Requirements: Airmen must hold the 5-skill level to graduate from any program. Subject area requirements are shown below. The Contract Management program applies to the 6C0X1 career field.

Subject	Semester hours
Technical Education	24
Leadership, Management, and Military Studies	6
Physical Education	4
General Education	15
Program Electives	15
Total	64

7.2.1. Technical Education. A minimum of twelve (12) semester hours of Technical Core subjects/courses must be applied. The remaining semester hours will be applied to fulfill Technical Education and Program Elective requirements.

7.2.2. Leadership, Management, and Military Studies. These include Professional Military Education (PME) and civilian management courses. Refer to the CCAF General Catalog for transferability of civilian management courses.

7.2.3. Physical Education. This requirement is satisfied upon completion of basic military training.

7.2.4. General Education. Courses must meet the Criteria for Application of Courses to the General Education Requirement and be in agreement with the definitions of Applicable General Education subjects/courses as outlined in the CCAF General Catalog.

7.2.5. Program Electives. These are satisfied with applicable Technical Education, Leadership, Management, and Military Studies, or General Education subjects/courses.

7.3. Personal Choice. Additional off-duty education is a personal choice that is encouraged for all. Individuals desiring to become an Air Education and Training Command instructor should actively pursue an associate degree. A degreed faculty is necessary to maintain CCAF accreditation through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

8. Acquisition Professional Development Program (APDP)/DOD Career Development Program. With implementation of the Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (P.L. 101-510), the Department of Defense established a Career Development Program for acquisition personnel. The Air Force implementing program is the Acquisition Professional Development Program (APDP).

8.1. APDP Application. APDP applies to officer, enlisted, and civilian personnel occupying acquisition-coded contracting positions. It provides guidance relating to certification requirements applicable to the 6C0X1 career specialty.

8.2. Certification Requirements. The contracting career path includes three progressive levels of certification. Each level identifies the completion of specific training, education and experience requirements. Acquisition personnel may not be assigned to an acquisition position unless they have been awarded a certification at the level which the position requires, or can obtain the required certification within eighteen (18) months of being assigned to the position.

8.3. Certification/Skill Level/Grade Association. Air Force contracting has determined that positions on unit manning documents should be coded to require levels of certification commensurate with the required grade of the position. APDP certification is designed to be a balanced and progressive program of training, experience, and education. It is not intended for quick attainment without having practical on-the-job experiences to accompany the certification.. Personnel will only receive priority and approval to complete APDP certification based on their assigned, or projected, duty position. SAF/AQC (AFCFM) has final approval authority for enlisted members to attend any Level III training course. See the table below for established position certification levels by grade:

GRADE	POSITION CERTIFICATION LEVEL	SEI
Airman Basic	None	NA
Airman	None	NA
Airman First Class	Level I	129
Senior Airman	Level I	129
Staff Sergeant	Level I/II	129/130
Technical Sergeant	Level II	130
Master Sergeant*	Level II/III*	130/131
Senior/Chief Master Sergeant	Level III	131

NOTE: * Denotes that Master Sergeants occupying a superintendent position within an organization are permitted to attend and obtain level III certification. Master Sergeants who do not occupy squadron-level superintendent positions, may attend level III training (as priority II) but may not be certified until they occupy a squadron-level position.

8.4. Satisfying APDP Educational Requirements. A minimum of 24 semester hours in business-related disciplines of study from an accredited institution of higher education is required. Some examples of business related disciplines are: organization and management, accounting, business finance, law, contracts, purchasing, economics, industrial management, marketing, and quantitative methods. Contracting enlisted personnel are strongly encouraged to use CCAF course work to receive business-hour credits to satisfy APDP requirements. Defense Acquisition University (DAU) contracting courses also result in business-hour credits through the CCAF.

8.4.1. Civilian Courses. Attending civilian courses through the Tuition Assistance Program is highly encouraged. SAF/AQC centrally manages a separate TA program which pays for enlisted members to earn their 24 hours. This program covers institutional fees such as enrollment, lab fees, etc, as well as textbooks.

8.4.2. Continuous Learning (CL). Every acquisition workforce member has a goal to earn 40 CL points each year and is required to earn 80 CL points every two years through a variety of events, including DAU, MAJCOM, and local training, conferences, rotational assignment and other professional events.

8.4.3. Other Programs. Members may also acquire semester-hour credits through the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) and the Defense Activity for Non-traditional Education Support (DANTES). Both programs offer opportunities to test business knowledge. Successful test scores can result in the award of three (3) to six (6) semester hours per test. Local education offices can provide more information.

9. Special Experience Identifiers (SEIs).

9.1. Purpose. SEIs identify special experience and training not otherwise identified within the personnel data system (PDS). They are used when identifying experience or training is critical to the job and person assignment match and no other identification is appropriate or available. SEIs are tied to the assignment process and better distribute personnel to optimize the job and person match.

9.2. Three Contracting SEIs. SEIs reflect training and experience accomplishments and certification levels for the APDP. For grade requirements and their corresponding SEI requirement, see the table at paragraph 8.3.

9.2.1. 129. Code 129 represents APDP Contracting Level I certification. Enlisted positions in the contracting career field associated with duties above the simplified acquisition threshold are coded either 129 or 130.

9.2.2. 130. Code 130 represents APDP Contracting Level II certification. Enlisted positions in the contracting career field associated with duties above the simplified acquisition threshold are coded either 129 or 130.

9.2.3. 131. Code 131 represents APDP Contracting Level III certification.

9.3. Responsibilities. Because SEIs determine assignment of positions and locations, personnel must work toward acquiring them.

9.3.1. Supervisors. Supervisors should thoroughly discuss the contracting SEI process and its impact on individual performance during feedback sessions and encourage Airmen to work toward acquiring the appropriate SEI codes.

9.3.2. Individuals. Individuals are responsible for ensuring the appropriate SEI Code is entered into their records. They do so either at their CSS or local Military Personnel Flight (MPF).

10.3. Figure 1.2, “Wear of Occupational Badges,” summarizes guidance provided in AFI 36-2923, “Aeronautical, Duty & Occupational Badges.”

10.4. Figure 2, “Training Timeline - Non Prior Service,” is a chronological composite of technical, professional and military training goals for Non-Prior Service Airmen.

10.5. Figure 3, “Training Timeline - Prior Service (Retrainee),” is a chronological composite of technical, professional and military training goals for Prior Service (Retrainee) Airmen.

SECTION C - SKILL LEVEL TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

11. Purpose. Skill level training requirements in this career field are defined in terms of tasks and knowledge requirements. This section outlines the specialty qualification requirements for each skill level in broad, general terms and establishes the mandatory requirements for entry, award, and retention of each skill level as defined in AFMAN 36-2108, Attachment 36. Specific task and knowledge training requirements are identified in the Specialty Training Standard (STS) at Part 2, Sections A and B of this CFETP.

12. Specialty Qualification.

12.1. Input or Helper, 1-skill level (AFSC 6C011) Training Requirements.

12.1.1. Specialty Qualification Requirements. For a summary of the following requirements, refer to Figure 1.1 of this CFETP.

12.1.1.1. Knowledge. This specialty requires general knowledge of pricing techniques, market trends, supply sources, US or foreign commercial practices, and marketing factors contributing to prices of items, equipment, materials, or services. This specialty also requires knowledge of basic office computer applications, audit procedures, policies, laws, and directives governing purchasing, and contingency contracting policies and procedures.

12.1.1.2. Education. Although there are no specific education requirements for this specialty, the helper will eventually be required to obtain 24 semester hours in business from an accredited institution.

12.1.1.3. Training. Attend the Mission Ready Contracting Apprentice Course.

12.1.1.4. Experience. There are no mandatory experience requirements for the Helper (6C011) level.

12.1.1.5. Other. For entry into this specialty, the following are mandatory.

12.1.1.5.1. Aptitude. Airmen must achieve a score of 70 in the general area derived from the Armed Forces Vocational Aptitude Battery or Armed Forces Classification Test.

12.1.1.5.2. Communication Abilities. For entry into this specialty, Airmen must have the ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing.

12.1.1.5.3. Character. For award and retention of any contracting AFSC, Airmen must never have been convicted of a felony, been convicted by courts-martial, or never have received non-judicial punishment for dereliction in the performance of duties involving contracting activities, larceny, misappropriation of government funds or property, or financial irresponsibility.

12.1.2. Training Sources. The initial skills (Contracting Apprentice) course at Lackland AFB, TX satisfies the knowledge and training requirements specified in the specialty qualification section above.

12.1.3. Implementation. For pipeline Airmen completing BMT, entry into training occurs when assigned to the contracting career field.

12.2. Apprentice, 3-skill level (AFSC 6C031) Training Requirements.

12.2.1. Specialty Qualifications Requirements. For a summary of the following requirements, refer to Figure 1.1 of this CFETP.

12.2.1.1. Knowledge. This specialty requires knowledge of pricing techniques, market trends, supply sources, US or foreign commercial practices, and marketing factors contributing to prices of items, equipment, materials, or services. This specialty also requires knowledge of basic office computer applications, audit procedures, policies, laws, and directives governing purchasing, and contingency contracting policies and procedures.

12.2.1.2. Education. Although there are no specific education requirements for this specialty, the helper will eventually be required to obtain 24 semester hours in business from an accredited institution.

12.2.1.3. Training. Successful completion of the Contracting Apprentice course is required for award of the 3-skill level (6C031).

12.2.1.4. Experience. There are no mandatory experience requirements for the Apprentice (6C031) level.

12.2.1.5. Other. For entry, award, and retention of the Contracting AFSC 6C0X1, the following are mandatory.

12.2.1.5.1 Aptitude. Airmen must achieve a score of 72 in the general area derived from the Armed Forces Vocational Aptitude Battery or Armed Forces Classification Test.

12.2.1.5.2. Communication Abilities. Airmen must have the ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing for award of this specialty.

12.2.1.5.3. Character. For award and retention of any contracting AFSC, Airmen must never have been convicted of a felony, been convicted by courts-martial, or never have received non-judicial punishment for dereliction in the performance of duties involving contracting activities, larceny, misappropriation of government funds or property, or financial irresponsibility.

12.2.2. Training Sources. Contracting Apprentice training course at Lackland AFB, TX. The STS at Part 2, Sections A and B of this CFETP identify all the knowledge and tasks, with their respective standards.

12.2.3. Implementation.

12.2.3.1. Entry. For pipeline Airmen completing basic training, entry into training occurs when assigned to the contracting career field. For cross-training personnel, entry into training occurs after approval to retrain into contracting. (To be approved, retrainees undergo an established interview process conducted by their local contracting squadron superintendent. MAJCOM superintendents make approval recommendations and AFPC approves the reassignment.)

12.2.3.2. First Duty Assignment. Upon graduation from the Contracting Apprentice course, graduates are assigned to their first contracting duty position. Apprentices receive training on local 3-skill level duty position tasks and begin 5-skill level qualification training on core tasks, reinforcing the training accomplished at the Mission Ready Airmen Course.

12.2.3.3. CDC Enrollment. Supervisors/UTM will enroll the apprentice in the 6C051A, Contracting Journeyman career development course (CDC). Upon completion of 6C051A, supervisors/UTM will enroll the apprentice in 6C051B. Completion of 6C051A is a prerequisite for enrollment into 6C051B. Both courses must be successfully completed to fulfill the CDC requirement.

12.3.2.4. APDP Certification. Journeyman should be actively working toward their APDP certification to Level I, Contracting.

12.3.3. Implementation. Upon completion of 3-skill level, supervisors will meet with the Airman to review 5-skill level upgrade requirements, document the individual's STS, and determine actions needed to implement effective and efficient use of all training sources. In addition, to the maximum extent practical, expose the Airman to a variety of contracting actions by rotating job positions within the contracting office.

12.4. Craftsman, 7-skill level (AFSC 6C071) Training Requirements.

PART 2

SECTION A - SPECIALTY TRAINING STANDARD, APPRENTICE/JOURNEYMAN/ CRAFTSMAN/SUPERINTENDENT (6C0X1)/CEM (6C000)

1. Implementation. This STS will be used for technical training provided by Air Education and Training Command. The schoolhouse will implement this training effective with class 050321.

2. Purpose of the Specialty Training Standard (STS). As prescribed in AFI 36-2201, Developing, Managing, and Conducting Training, this STS:

2.1. Lists in column 1 (Task, Knowledge, and Technical Reference) the most common tasks, knowledge, and technical references (TRs) necessary for Airmen to perform duties at the 3-, 5-, and 7-skill levels. These are based on an analysis of the Occupational Survey Report, dated August 2003. The task breakdown is based on an analysis of the duties during the March 2004 Utilization and Training Workshop conducted at Lackland AFB, TX, and enlisted functional manager inputs.

2.2. Provides certification for OJT. Column 4 is used to record completion of tasks and knowledge training requirements.

2.3. Shows formal training and correspondence course requirements. Column 3 of attachment 2 shows the proficiency to be demonstrated on the job by the graduate as a result of training in the 3-skill level course as described in the Education and Training Course Announcements (ETCA) system (previously AFCAT 36-2223) available at https://www.mil.keesler.af.mil/menu/training/st_index.htm. When two codes are used in column 3, the first code is the established requirement for resident training on the task/knowledge, and the second code is the level of training currently provided in the course. Column 3 also indicates the career knowledge provided in the 5-skill level Career Development Courses (CDC). See AFIADL/AFSC/CDC listings maintained by the unit OJT manager for current CDC listings.

2.4. Explains Qualitative Requirements. Attachment 1 contains the proficiency code key used to indicate levels of training and knowledge provided by resident training and career development courses.

2.5. . Uses a building block approach (simple to complex) to encompass the entire spectrum of training requirements for the Contracting career field. The 3 level course and the 5 level CDCs use the PCK codes identified for each STS item for measurement devices. (i.e. the 3 level student is measured at the “a” level for STS 1.1 Explain progression in career ladder 6C0X1.)

2.6. Becomes a job qualification standard (JQS) for on-the-job training when placed in AF Form 623, On-the-Job Training Record, and used according to AFI 36-2201. When used as a JQS, additional requirements apply

2.6.1. Documentation. Document completion of training. The AFCFM has determined that third party task certification is not required. Identify duty position requirements by circling the appropriate subparagraph number in Column 1. As a minimum, complete the following columns in Part 2 of the CFETP: Training Completed, Trainee Initials, and Trainer Initials. An AFJQS may be used in lieu of Part II of the CFETP only upon approval of the Air Force Career Field Manager (AFCFM). NOTE: The AFCFM may supplement these minimum documentation procedures as needed or deemed necessary for their Career Field.

2.6.1.1. CFETP Transcribing Procedures. Use the new CFETP to identify and document all past and current qualifications. Transcribe qualifications in the following manner:

2.6.1.1.1. For tasks previously certified and required in the current duty position, circle the subparagraph number next to the task statement and enter the current date in the completion column. Trainee initials in the trainee column and the current supervisor/trainer initials in the trainer column. Rationale: Clarifies transcribing documentation procedures.

2.6.1.1.2. When transcribing previous certification for tasks not required in the current duty position, carry forward only the previous completion date of certification (not the initials of another person). If and when these tasks become duty position requirements, recertify using standard certification procedures.

2.6.1.1.3. The person whose initials appear in the trainer block during the transcription process must meet those requirements.

2.6.1.1.4. Upon completion of the transcription process, give the old CFETP to the member.

2.6.1.2. Documenting Career Knowledge. When a CDC is not available, the supervisor identifies STS training references that the trainee requires for career knowledge and ensures, at a minimum, that trainees cover the mandatory items in AFI 36-2108. For two-time CDC course exam failures, supervisors identify all STS items corresponding to the areas covered by the CDC. The trainee completes a study of STS references, undergoes evaluation by the supervisor, and receives certification on the STS items. NOTE: Career Knowledge must be documented prior to submitting a CDC waiver.

2.6.1.3. Decertification and Recertification. When an Airman is found to be unqualified on a task previously certified for his or her position, the supervisor lines through the previous certification or deletes previous certification when using an automated system. Appropriate remarks are entered on the AF Form 623A, On-The-Job Training Record Continuation Sheet, as to the reason for decertification. The individual is recertified (if required) either by erasing the old entries in writing or by using correction fluid (if the entries were made in ink) over the previously certified entry.

2.6.2. Training Standard. Tasks in the 3 level course are trained to the partially proficient level, meaning the individual can perform the task, needing help only with the hardest part. OJT tasks are trained and qualified to the “go/no go” level. “Go” means the individual can perform the task without assistance and meets local demands for accuracy, timeliness, and correct use of procedures.

2.7. Promotion Testing. This STS is a guide for development of promotion tests under the Weighted Airman Promotion System (WAPS). Senior NCOs use this STS to develop Specialty Knowledge Tests (SKTs) at the AF Occupational Measurement Squadron. Only subject matter experts with extensive practical experience in their career fields are used to develop test material. Questions are based on study references listed in the WAPS catalog. Individual responsibilities are in Chapter 14 of AFI 36-2605, US Air Force Reenlistment, Retention, and NCO Status Programs (formerly AFR 35-16, volume 1).

3. Recommendations. Report unsatisfactory performance of individual course graduates to the contracting training manager at: 345 TRS/DORP, 1015 Femoyer Drive, Lackland AFB TX 78236, DSN 473-4937 or, the 37th Training Group Customer Service Line (24 Hours), DSN 473-2917.
